Headlam Group plc (HEAD.L) is narrowing its strategic review options by abandoning a planned sale and leaseback of its Coleshill HQ. The company has received refinancing offers that would provide additional liquidity, though it notes there is no certainty these options will be implemented. Trading remains challenging, despite July 2026 revenue to date being approximately 3.5% ahead of June 2026. The outcome of refinancing talks is the primary binary for the equity as liquidity issues continue to impair effective trading.

GE HealthCare (GEHC) is weighing options for its Patient Care Solutions (PCS) unit following Q2 fulfillment problems and a pattern of underperformance. Pamtek Co., Ltd. (271830.KQ) acquired 600,000 shares of TIS Co., Ltd. for KRW 3 billion (~$2.1M) to expand its semiconductor wafer-handling robotics capabilities. The purchase was completed July 30, 2026, at a price of KRW 5,000 per share, which sits near the midpoint of a KPMG Samjung appraisal range of KRW 1,870 to KRW 8,060. To fund the transaction, Pamtek issued KRW 10 billion (~$7M) in 5-year convertible bonds with a 0% coupon and 0.5% maturity yield. A US producer and marketer of distilled spirits and wine, with brands including Jack Daniel's Tennessee whiskey, Woodford Reserve and Old Forester bourbon, Herradura tequila and Korbel champagne.

Sazerac made an unsolicited $32.00 per share cash offer for Brown-Forman (BFB) on May 1, valuing the company at approximately $15 billion. The Brown-Forman board concluded the offer was not actionable, and Wolf Pen Branch, representing a majority of Class A voting shares, stated the proposal does not align with its vision. Sazerac indicated it is ready to improve terms if the board engages and offered Class A shareholders an option to roll over into the combined entity. Because the Brown family controls over 50% of voting stock, any sale requires their approval. Sazerac's public letter to shareholders and the family's rejection sets up a potential pressure campaign on the controlling family.

Canyon Resources Limited CAY.AX · AU
Canyon Resources Limited, together with its subsidiaries, engages in the expedition and development of mineral properties in West Africa. The company mines for bauxite, alumina, and silica.

A2MP Investments FZCO warned it may terminate its off-market takeover bid for Canyon Resources Limited (CAY.AX) following a proposed issue of options at a $0.255 exercise price. The controlling shareholder filed a first supplementary bidder's statement on 31 July 2026, noting that such an option issue would trigger the No Prescribed Occurrences Condition. A2MP also alleged that the target's June 2026 Quarterly Report omitted previously stated timelines for first ore shipment from the Minim Martap Bauxite Project. Non-Executive Chairman Mark Hohnen resigned from the board effective 25 August 2026. The bidder's statement signals potential deal risk as A2MP argues the project's economics have materially changed and flags a potential condition breach.

Zabka Group S.A. ZAB.WA · PL
Zabka Group S.A. operates as an ultimate convenience ecosystem in Poland. The company operates convenience retail stores and Zabka Nano Stores, an autonomous store.
Alimentation Couche-Tard launched a voluntary tender offer to acquire Zabka (ZAB.WA) for 32 zlotys per share in a cash deal valued at 32.6 billion zlotys ($8.72 billion). Shareholders including CVC Capital and Partners Group, representing approximately 57% of share capital, have committed to tender. Couche-Tard intends to delist the company if it acquires at least 95% of shares, with an expected close by December 2026. This creates a high-certainty arbitrage situation based on the committed 57% stake and the 95% squeeze-out threshold. The buyer will pay PLN 32.00 per share in cash, an offer supported by shareholders representing approximately 57% of shares, including CVC Capital Partners and Partners Group. The transaction remains subject to EU and Polish merger control, Romanian FDI, and EU Foreign Subsidies Regulation approvals.

Santander Brasil Santander Brasil is the Brazilian subsidiary of Banco Santander, offering retail and commercial banking, asset management, and insurance products. Banco Santander announced plans to launch a voluntary exchange offer for the approximately 10% free float of Santander Brasil (SANB11.SA) it does not own. The proposed terms value the stake at up to about €1.9 billion, imply a 15% premium, and would issue about 156 million new Santander Spain shares, at 0.4056 BDR/ADS per unit/ADS and 0.2028 per ordinary or preferred share; there is no minimum-acceptance condition. The source says Santander Brasil is intended to remain listed on B3; U.S. ADSs may be delisted depending on the U.S. offer. Reduced Brazilian liquidity or a future delisting is a general risk, not specifically a consequence of low acceptance, and the offer is announced/planned rather than already launched.	SANB11 . Far East Gold Ltd is an ASX-listed copper/gold exploration company with six advanced projects in Australia and Indonesia.		EV	$37M
Far East Gold Ltd (FEG.AX) is rejecting a hostile cash takeover bid from Xingye, which the company's board describes as opportunistic and materially undervaluing. Xingye currently holds a 33.90% relevant interest and has offered A$0.13 per share, with a conditional increase to A$0.15 if it reaches more than 50% relevant interest by 7:00pm Sydney time on 29 July 2026. An independent expert valued the company at A$0.324 to A$0.444 per share, and the board notes a non-binding US$40M proposal for its Trenggalek project alone exceeds the total offer for the company. The offer closes on 29 July 2026 with Xingye well short of the 50% threshold needed to trigger the conditional price. The wide gap between the offer and the expert valuation range creates a catalyst for rejection and potential bid revision. The situation centers on whether Xingye can cross the 50% threshold by the closing date given the wide gap between the bid and the expert valuation.

ReNew Energy Global plc (RNW) is involved in a going-private transaction. A consortium including Canada Pension Plan Investment Board and Sumant Sinha submitted a revised non-binding cash proposal to take ReNew Energy Global plc (RNW) private at $7.02 per share. Submitted on July 27, 2026, the offer increases the cash consideration from a previous proposal dated May 28, 2026, while maintaining the existing rollover terms. The consortium described the bid as its best and final non-binding offer, and no transaction agreement has been executed. Canada Pension Plan Investment Board holds 88,846,844 Class A ordinary shares, representing 34.4% of voting rights. The best-and-final label signals the consortium's last price, putting the special committee to a decision. The $7.02 offer sets a ceiling for the take-private negotiation, and the spread to the current price reflects market skepticism regarding board acceptance or deal certainty.

The buyer also intends to conclude a domination and profit-and-loss transfer agreement with undetermined cash compensation for minority shareholders. DCC Energy is a leader in multi-energy sales and distribution in Europe and the US, serving millions of customers across commercial, industrial, public and domestic sectors.
A consortium of ECP and KKR is taking DCC Energy PLC (DCC.L) private in a cash acquisition valued at approximately £5.75 billion (-$7.8B). The buyers will pay a base cash consideration of 6,525p per share, representing a 24% premium to the undisturbed closing price of 5,380p. Total value per share can reach 6,797.22p including a previously paid 147.22p final dividend and up to 125p in contingent Technology Disposal Additional Consideration. The transaction is structured as an Irish High Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement with a Scheme Meeting and EGM expected in September 2026. The deal requires 75% shareholder approval and High Court sanction, with a targeted effective date in Q1 2027. This creates a spread to monitor against regulatory and vote risk over the approximately 9-month timeline to close. The board recommended a base consideration of 6,525 pence per share, which, including a paid final dividend of 147.22 pence, provides a guaranteed value of 6,672.22 pence. All exclusive rights to develop and commercialize efzofitimod for interstitial lung disease in Japan reverted to aTyr. Pelican Acquisition II Corporation (PLCI) closed its IPO of 8,625,000 units at $10.00 per unit, raising $86.25M in gross proceeds. Each unit consists of one ordinary share and one right to receive 1/10 of an ordinary share upon a business combination. A simultaneous private placement of 386,500 units raised $3.865M from the sponsor and EarlyBirdCapital. The company deposited $75.75M into its trust account for the benefit of public shareholders. The $75.75M trust value sets the floor for arbitrage as the sponsor seeks a target.

The instrument matures upon the consummation of the Ripple Labs de-SPAC transaction or the termination of the Business Combination Agreement dated October 19, 2025. The company's charter permits further monthly extensions (each requiring an additional $50,000 deposit) up to January 22, 2027, but this filing is a clerical correction and does not disclose whether any extension beyond June 22, 2026 has actually occurred, leaving the deal's current status unclear. FibroBiologics, Inc.	FBLG · US
FibroBiologics, Inc., a clinical-stage biotechnology company, engages in the development and commercialization of fibroblast-based therapies for patients suffering from chronic diseases. The company's product pipeline includes CYWC628 which has completed pre-clinical trial for the treatment of wound healing.
FibroBiologics, Inc. (FBLG) faces delisting from Nasdaq due to bid-price noncompliance after the stock remained below $1.00 for 30 consecutive business days. The company has requested a Nasdaq Hearings Panel hearing, which temporarily stays the delisting. As of June 30, 2026, the company reported $3,515 thousand in cash, an accumulated deficit of $63,281 thousand, and disclosed substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. The hearing outcome is the next catalyst, as the Panel may grant a compliance period or proceed with delisting amid a going-concern warning and minimal cash.
Keen Vision Acquisition Corporation	KVAC · US
Keen Vision Acquisition Corporation does not have significant operations.
Keen Vision Acquisition Corp. received a Nasdaq delisting notice on July 27, 2026, for failing to complete a business combination within 36 months of its IPO registration statement effectiveness. The company is also non-compliant with Nasdaq's minimum 1,100,000 publicly held shares and minimum 400 total holders requirements. Trading of KVAC's securities will be suspended at the open of business on August 3, 2026, and a Form 25-NSE will be filed to remove the securities from Nasdaq. The company will not appeal the delisting determination and expects its securities to trade over-the-counter (OTC). The securities move to OTC trading due to the expired 36-month deadline.
Ridgetech Inc.	RDGT · US
Ridgetech, Inc. operates as a wholesale distributor of pharmaceutical and other healthcare products in the People's Republic of China.
Ridgetech Inc. (RDGT) faces forced delisting from the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC because its market value of listed securities is below the $5 million minimum requirement. Under a new rule effective July 22, 2026, the company has no compliance or cure period for this deficiency. Trading will be suspended and delisting proceedings will begin immediately after 30 consecutive business days below the threshold. The company reported a net loss of approximately $1.25 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026. This creates a binary outcome for micro-cap holders as trading suspension would precede any appeal, leaving no exit window.

Open Lending Corporation provides lending enablement and risk analytics solutions to credit unions, regional banks, finance companies, and captive finance companies of automakers in the United States.

Nasdaq's July 28 corporate-action alert says the tender offer expired July 27, the merger was expected to close before the July 30 open, trading was halted after July 29, and suspension was effective July 31; merger consideration was $3.15 per share. Vantiva	VANTI.PA · FR
Vantiva is a global technology leader in connectivity.
Vantiva (VANTI.PA) is seeking to downlist its shares from the Euronext Paris regulated market to Euronext Growth Paris. The board resolved to initiate the transfer on July 30, 2026, and the move is subject to shareholder approval at a general meeting on September 23, 2026. Existing ordinary shares will be directly admitted to trading on the new exchange without the issuance of new shares. The transfer reduces regulatory obligations and costs while triggering a three-year mandatory tender offer regime and continued disclosure rules to preserve minority protections. If approved and subject to Euronext's consent, the transfer would take effect as early as November 23, 2026.

The board has applied to delist the shares from Nasdaq Stockholm, and the last trading day will be announced upon exchange confirmation. An extraordinary general meeting is scheduled for August 31, 2026, to elect a new board. Tabellae BidCo intends to initiate compulsory redemption of all remaining shares. This application signals the end of trading liquidity, and the last trading day will serve as the final exit window for minority shareholders facing compulsory redemption under Swedish law.

International Iconic Gold Exploration Corp. engages in acquisition, evaluation, and exploration of mineral resource properties in Argentina. The company was formerly known as Marifil Mines Limited and changed its name to International Iconic Gold Exploration Corp. in September 2021.
International Iconic Gold Exploration Corp. (ICON.V) will voluntarily delist from the TSX Venture Exchange to reduce public-company expenses and facilitate debt restructuring. The move was approved by the board and over 50% of disinterested shareholders, citing minimal trading activity and a market cap that does not reflect asset value. Shares are expected to cease trading around August 11, 2026. This removes the company's only listed equity with no alternative trading venue arranged, leaving existing shareholders in an illiquid position.

The affected segment represented 33.7% of total sales, or KRW 513.4B (-$357M) of KRW 1,523.3B (-$1.1B), based on 2022 consolidated financial statements. Publicis Groupe S.A. The CCI informed the Delhi High Court of this addition on July 31, resolving a challenge by Publicis regarding whether the French parent or the local entity was the correct target of the investigation. The probe involves alleged collusion on ad rates and discounts among several global networks, including WPP's GroupM, Dentsu, Omnicom, and Interpublic, following surprise searches on March 18, 2025. The removal of this legal challenge allows the CCI to proceed with its investigation into India's ₹993.7 billion (-$10.4B) advertising market. If the CCI finds anti-competitive agreements, the named global agency networks face penalties under the Competition Act.

Xencor, Inc. XNCR · US

Xencor, Inc., a clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company, focuses on the discovery and development of engineered antibodies for the treatment of cancer and autoimmune diseases.

Xencor, Inc. (XNCR) settled a commercial royalty dispute with Alexion Pharma International Operations Limited to receive $105 million in cash. The settlement resolves a dispute over U.S. sales of Ultomiris, with Xencor receiving two equal payments of $52.5 million, the first anticipated in August 2026. Alexion now has no further obligation to pay royalties on U.S. sales of the drug, while ex-U.S. royalties continue under a 2013 agreement. This converts a disputed royalty stream into a certain cash inflow and extends the company's cash runway through 2028.

Westlake Corporation manufactures and markets performance and essential materials, and housing and infrastructure products in the United States, Canada, Germany, China, Mexico, Brazil, France, Italy, and internationally. This segment also offers consumer and commercial products, such as landscape edging.

The dismissed claims included damages sought by Shell Chemical Europe B.V. and a request for a declaratory judgment for unspecified damages from Stichting Ethylene Claims. Both dismissals are subject to appeal, and twelve related lawsuits remain pending at first instance. The litigation tail is reduced but not eliminated.

Johnson & Johnson JNJ · US

Johnson & Johnson, together with its subsidiaries, engages in the research and development, manufacture, and sale of a range of products in the healthcare field worldwide.

Johnson & Johnson (JNJ) proposed a $5.5 billion cash settlement to resolve 76,000 remaining ovarian talc claims. The resolution is conditioned on at least 95% of claims participating. The payment structure is back-loaded, with an initial payment of no more than $3 billion in 2027 and no further payments before 2028. This proposal follows a July 22, 2026, MDL court order requiring plaintiffs to show specific causation. The settlement removes the largest remaining talc overhang for JNJ while limiting near-term cash impact.

Fortrea Holdings Inc. FTRE · US

Fortrea Holdings Inc., a contract research organization, provides biopharmaceutical product and medical device development solutions to pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and medical device customers worldwide. Fortrea Holdings Inc. (FTRE) lost its CFO after the Delaware Court of Chancery granted a temporary restraining order on July 25, 2026, preventing Jason Knoblauch from working for the company. The order follows a lawsuit from Knoblauch's prior employer alleging retention of confidential information and violation of restrictive covenants. Knoblauch, who began his role on July 6, 2026, is now on a paid leave of absence for an undetermined duration. Board director David Smith was appointed Interim CFO on July 27, 2026, with compensation of $60,000 per month and RSU grants capped at $900,000 aggregate fair value. This unusual governance disruption creates uncertainty around the permanent finance-leadership timeline despite the interim appointment of a director with prior CFO experience.

Highfield Resources Ltd HFR.AX · AU

Highfield Resources is an ASX-listed potash developer advancing the Muga Potash Project in northern Spain. The project spans multiple mining concessions across regional boundaries.

Highfield Resources (HFR.AX) received two court rulings regarding its Muga potash project concessions. The Superior Court of Justice of Madrid dismissed an environmental challenge against the Fronterizo mining concession and awarded costs against the claimant. Concurrently, Spain's Supreme Court admitted appeals for the Goyo mining concession, initiating a full judicial review of the procedural ruling. The company reduced average monthly payroll by 24% to preserve liquidity, reporting A$1.46 million (-$1M) in cash at the June quarter end plus A$700,000 (-$491.8K) received under its convertible note facility in July. The Fronterizo dismissal removes one legal overhang, while the Supreme Court's admission of the Goyo appeal is a necessary step toward resolving the permitting uncertainty that has stalled the project.

Meta Platforms META · US

Meta Platforms, Inc. engages in the development of products that enable people to connect and share with friends and family through mobile devices, personal computers, virtual reality (VR) headsets, and AI glasses in the United States, Canada, Europe, Asia-Pacific.

Meta Platforms (META) faces an August federal court trial in Oakland where four state attorneys general are seeking up to $1.4 trillion in damages. The company is also currently in trial over claims from the Tennessee attorney general regarding user safety misrepresentations. Meta previously suffered March court defeats in California and New Mexico, with the company warning that a loss in the New Mexico case alone could result in $3.7 billion in damages. A further trial is slated for February. The $1.4 trillion damages claim is nearly equivalent to Meta's own $1.4 trillion market cap, and potential court-ordered product changes threaten the core business during an expensive AI transition.

The process includes a regulatory gate, as GBH's stake requires US Federal Reserve approval to acquire shares of the new parent.		P/E	14.1x
