Notice Regarding the Postponement of the Schedule for the Basic Agreement towards a Capital Alliance (Subsidiary Acquisition) with UK-based CUDO and the Establishment of a Joint Venture (Subsidiary)

As previously disclosed in the announcement dated 2 June 2025 entitled “Notice Regarding Basic Agreement on Capital Alliance (Subsidiary Acquisition) with UK-based CUDO and the Establishment of a Joint Venture (Subsidiary)”, Datasection Inc. hereby announces that, in connection with its capital alliance with CUDO Ventures Ltd. (headquartered in the City of London, United Kingdom; CEO: Mr Mathew Hawkins; service brand: CUDO Compute; hereinafter referred to as “CUDO”), the Company has reached a basic agreement with Mr Mathew Hawkins, the controlling shareholder and Chief Executive Officer of CUDO, regarding the acquisition of CUDO as a subsidiary of the Company (the “Capital Alliance”).

In addition, the Company has agreed with CUDO to establish a joint venture company in the United Kingdom, which will be positioned as a subsidiary of the Company.

Following continued discussions between the relevant parties, coordination with the competent authorities in the United Kingdom and the alignment of closing conditions have required a longer period than initially anticipated.

Accordingly, the Company has decided to postpone the scheduled date for entering into the final, legally binding agreement relating to the Capital Alliance, which had been targeted for completion by 2 December 2025, to December 2026. In conjunction with this change, the scheduled date for the establishment of the joint venture company in the United Kingdom with CUDO Ventures Ltd., which had been planned to occur prior to the execution of the final agreement, is also expected to be postponed to by September 2026.

The Company expects that this matter will have no impact on its consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 2026.
